Rochester Man Guilty of Sexually Abusing a Child

Rochester, NY- Today, Supreme Court Justice Francis Affronti found 39 year old James Riley guilty of three counts of Predatory Sexual Assault Against a Child for sexually abusing a ten year old child between January and May of 2014.

The case was prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Sara VanStrydonck of the Special Victims Trial Division.

"It was extremely brave of this child to come forward, not only to initially report the incidents, but then to confront her abuser in open court," said VanStrydonck. "We are happy to bring justice to the victim and her family."

Riley, who faces up to 20 years to life in State prison, will be sentenced before Justice Affronti on May 26th.
