

News From

Maggie Brooks

Monroe County Executive

For Immediate Release
Wednesday, January 2, 2008

BROOKS ANNOUNCES FLOWER CITY PRINTING IS JANUARY BUSINESS OF THE MONTH

Monroe County Executive Maggie Brooks today announced that Flower City Printing has been named Monroe County's "Business of the Month" for January and is featured on Monroe County's website, monroecounty.gov.

"Our community is recognized as a national leader in the printing industry and Flower City Printing is one of the companies that put our region on the map," said Brooks. "I want to thank Flower City Printing for providing good jobs and growing their business in Monroe County."

"Flower City Printing continues to grow in the global marketplace by providing excellent products and services quickly with a 'Yes We Can' attitude," said Flower City Printing. "The help from Monroe County has enabled us to improve and expand our operations and invest our money in hiring additional workers."

Flower City Printing was founded in Rochester in 1970 and currently employs 264 in Monroe County. It is one of the premier large format printers in the United States. The company provides a variety of products and services for nationally recognized retailers and consumer products companies.

Monroe County assisted Flower City Printing with its Lee Road facility expansion last year.

Flower City Printing received the 2007 Best Workplace in the Americas Award in the large company category from Printing Industries of America/Graphic Arts Technical Foundation.

For more information on Flower City Printing visit www.fcp.biz.

###

Media Inquiries, contact:

Department of Communications at 753-1080