BROOKS: CARESTREAM CREATING 500 NEW JOBS IN MONROE COUNTY

Will Also Retain 800 Existing Jobs, Bringing Local Employment to 1,300

Monroe County Executive Maggie Brooks announced today that Carestream Health is creating 500 new jobs in Monroe County. Carestream is a division of Onex Corp., which recently agreed to purchase Eastman Kodak's health imaging group.

Carestream will locate its world headquarters in Monroe County. The company is also retaining 800 existing jobs, bringing its local employment to 1,300.

"It is with great enthusiasm that I welcome Carestream and its world headquarters to Monroe County. This project is a huge win for our community – retaining 800 existing jobs, creating 500 new jobs, and investing $12 million in our local economy," said Brooks. "We are thrilled that Carestream has recognized our strengths – in particular our highly skilled workforce – and we look forward to working with them on a long and prosperous future for their company, right here in Monroe County."

In consideration of Carestream's commitment to growing its business locally, the company is eligible for incentives through COMIDA.
