

News From

Maggie Brooks

Monroe County Executive

For Immediate Release

Thursday, March 22, 2007

BROOKS AND YOLEVICH DEDICATE WILDER ROAD IN MEMORY OF FALLEN VIETNAM VETS

Monroe County Executive Maggie Brooks and Monroe County Legislator Richard Yolevich (R-Parma) today dedicated a stretch of Wilder Road in Parma in memory of residents who died while serving our country in Vietnam. They were joined by members of the Vietnam Veterans of America, including Chapter 20 President Ken Moore.

“Monroe County is grateful for the sacrifices that our veterans have made, and continue to make, in the name of freedom and democracy,” said County Executive Brooks. “I want to thank County Legislator Yolevich, the Vietnam Veterans of America – Chapter 20, and County Department of Transportation for spearheading this effort.”

As part of the dedication, two signs were placed so that motorists can see them when they are traveling east or west on Wilder Road.

“Our community has a deep appreciation of the sacrifices made by our men and women who have served in the armed forces and their families,” said County Legislator Yolevich. “As a Vietnam Veteran, I am proud to recognize these young men for their service to our nation and I thank Chapter 20 President Ken Moore and County Executive Maggie Brooks for their efforts in support of this tribute.”

“As veterans of the Vietnam War we feel that it’s important that the residents of Hilton and Parma remember the sacrifice that these three young men made fighting for this great country in Vietnam,” said Moore. “David Lemcke, Gerry Wilson and John Waugh will forever be remembered by their fellow veterans of the Vietnam War. God Bless them forever.”

###

Media Inquiries, contact:

Department of Communications at 753-1080