

MONROE COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

WEEKLY BULLETIN

October, 17 2025

From Monroe County District Attorney Brian Green

As I have previously noted, October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month, a time to honor survivors, pay tribute to those lost to domestic violence related homicides, and reaffirm our shared commitment to ending abuse in all its forms. Domestic violence affects individuals and families in every community, often behind closed doors and in silence. As prosecutors, we see firsthand the lasting impact these crimes have, not only on survivors, but on children as well.

I want to commend ADA Patrick Gallagher, Chief of the Domestic Violence Bureau, and all of the ADAs and advocates who work on these difficult cases. Their work requires compassion and dedication, as they navigate some of the most difficult and emotionally charged cases in the criminal justice system. This month is also a reminder that ending domestic violence is a community effort, we can all play a role. Justice is not only about prosecution, it is about protection, prevention, and partnership. Together, we can create a community where every person feels safe in their own home, and every survivor knows they are not alone.
