How to Keep Your Children Safe

Yesterday, the Brighton Police Department announced the arrest of 40-year-old Serdar Ozmen for the kidnapping of a 14-year-old child from her Brighton home. Serdar Ozmen was charged with Kidnapping in the 1st Degree and was arraigned in Brighton Town Court. He is currently being held without bail and his next court date will be Tuesday, April 2 in Brighton Town Court for a Preliminary Hearing. This case is being prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Sara Vanstrydonck, Chief of the Special Victims Unit, and Assistant District Attorney Patrick Gallagher, Chief of the Domestic Violence Bureau.

While there is not much we can say about this case at this time, I can echo the sentiments of Dr. Daniele Lyman-Torres, President and CEO of Bivona Advocacy Center, and ADA Sara Vanstrydonck.

As parents or caregivers of children, we have a responsibility to keep them safe. It may be difficult, but we must stay up to date on messaging apps on our children's devices. We need to be aware of what our children are doing on the internet, especially social media.

As much as we wish it was not true, there are people who groom and abuse children. The Monroe County District Attorney's Office has an entire Special Victims Unit with dedicated Assistant District Attorneys who work on these cases every day.

Bivona Child Advocacy Center is an excellent resource to learn how to protect the children in your life. You can find several resources on internet safety and child abuse prevention at <https://www.bivonacac.org/community>. These resources include everything from internet safety for children and adults, to free online training on everything from human trafficking to cyber-bullying.

Homicide Update

To Date 2024:

City of Rochester Total:
11

Monroe County Total: 11

Some pointers from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children include:

- Set a “Digital Curfew”
- Monitor your child’s online use
- Engage on your children’s platforms for a better understanding
- Talk to your children about internet safety and healthy relationships

There are many more strategies for parents and caregivers available at Bivona’s website. I urge you to familiar yourself with the safest ways to protect your children from predators. In the meantime, myself, and the Assistant District Attorneys in my office, will do our part to hold these offenders accountable in the court of law to ensure that they cannot hurt more children.
