Weekly Newsletter

Welcome to the weekly newsletter from Monroe County District Attorney Sandra Doorley.

What does Memorial Day Mean to Me?

This weekend, you may have plans with your family. This may involve barbeques, parades or a visit to the park. These are all wonderful ways to kick-off the summer here in Monroe County. On Memorial Day I always pause and reflect on the meaning of Memorial Day, and what it means to me.

As Americans, it is hard not to take our liberties for granted. We trust that we will be safe from harm. We carry out our right to vote in elections without considering it a privilege. We go to school, work, and raise our families every day worried about the next stressor of life that we will encounter. What we do not consider is the service member who gave their lives for these liberties.

While we should consider these freedoms every single day, we are all guilty of being caught up in the hassles of day-to-day life. This Memorial Day, I urge everyone to contemplate the ultimate sacrifice that was made for this great country.

Memorial Day is a somber reminder that we are the lucky ones. Our freedoms were not handed to us, but came at a deep price from every generation of soldiers.

I find myself inspired and humbled by the service members who passed away protecting the United States of America. The very least we can do for these courageous men and women, is acknowledge them, and offer our deep respect and gratitude. We live in the home of the free, because of the brave. As an American, a mother, and a public servant, I could not be more grateful for the service that our soldiers have given our great nation.

To the families who have lost their loved ones while they were on duty, I am thinking of you. To the Veterans who watched their friends perish on duty, please take care. Your loved one's sacrifice is not unnoticed, and it is not forgotten.

God Bless America,

Sandra
