Products/Services:	Scented Serenity Candles was born out of a personal journey of healing and connection. During the difficult period of the COVID-19 pandemic, I began making candles as a way to cope with the stress and challenges of life. It was a time of reflection, and through creating scents, I found a way to deal with the grief I had carried since losing my dad in 2012. Creating candles and crafting unique scents helped me find comfort and peace, reminding me of cherished family memories and providing an outlet for my emotions. In 2023 the name became official.

Products/Services:	VanDuser Electric, LLC specializes in upgrading outdated electrical panels in low-income homes—because safe, modern electricity shouldn't be a luxury. We're passionate about making homes safer, more efficient, and more reliable, especially for families who need it the most. As a family-owned business, we're dedicated to providing affordable, high-quality electrical upgrades. Our focus is on residential electrical panel upgrades that meet today's energy demands while ensuring all work is code-compliant, safe, and completed to the highest standards. Millions of families live in aging homes with outdated, overloaded panels that can't support modern appliances or energy use. These aren't just inconveniences—they're fire hazards. But for many, the cost of upgrades puts basic safety out of reach.

Products/Services:	AAC Evaluation & Implementation for Nonverbal Individuals Through dynamic assessments and a tailored feature-matching approach, I transition nonverbal clients into autonomous communicators. I match individual motor, cognitive, and visual profiles to the right technology trialing high-tech eye-gaze systems, switch access, or dedicated AAC software like TD Snap and Proloquo2Go. To ensure lasting success, I coach families, caregivers, and educational teams on modeling strategies, pairing play-based engagement with functional literacy instruction to build real-world communication skills.
MWBE	Post-Stroke Rehab: Trach, PEG Weaning & Voice Restoration. For post-stroke adults, I address the critical intersection of breathing, swallowing, and speaking. By referring for advanced diagnostic imaging such as FEES and MBSS, I establish clear physiological baselines to safely guide tracheostomy patients through Passy-Muir valve placement toward decannulation. Using targeted dysphagia protocols and combining Expiratory Muscle Strength Training (EMST), targeted swallow maneuvers, and IDDSI-aligned diet progressions. I rebuild swallow function to safely wean clients off PEG tubes. By integrating breath support, vocal fold kinematics, and partner coaching, I help stroke survivors regain safe oral intake and rediscover their authentic voice.

Products/Services:	Pinnacle Solutions Inc. (PSI) is a software and consulting company providing custom financial software to banks, corporate users and Government agencies, since 1992. Synergy is PSI's suite of secure, functionally rich, web-based banking and financial applications developed using Microsoft .Net technology. The Synergy Collateral Management Application is used by NYC Department of Finance to receive inbound files from every bank and to track all city bank account balances and corresponding collateral coverage. In addition, Synergy is being used for audit purposes, to address FOIL requests and to provide NYC DOF with complete historical data for additional analytics. Synergy web-pages are fully integrated with Windows and other Microsoft products (e.g., Excel, Outlook, Word, Acrobat and Crystal reports). The Synergy Dashboard alerts the users to conditions of the collateral portfolio that need to be addressed. Synergy 's robust inquiry and reporting functions give the user the ability view and report consolidated data and to create dynamic customized reports with user defined filters. Synergy client/server technology and n- tier design is completely scalable and internet enabled with complete secure user administration. Concrete Rose Design LLC	Marquita Rugless	585-303-4214	concreterosedesign@hotmail.com	www.ConcreteRoseDesign.com
Products/Services:	Concrete Rose Design LLC provides interior site preparation, property cleanout, debris removal, and post-construction cleaning services for residential and commercial properties. Interior Site Preparation (Non-Structural Tear-Out): Preparing interior spaces for renovation or remodeling through selective, non-structural removal of interior finishes, including cutting and removing drywall, removing carpet, hardwood, laminate, vinyl, and tile flooring, and removing cabinets, countertops, fixtures, trim, and other interior finishes. All tear-out work is non-structural; we do not remove load-bearing walls, perform structural demolition, or conduct building teardowns, excavation, or earthmoving. Property Cleanouts and Debris Hauling: Full and partial cleanouts of residential and commercial properties, including estate cleanouts, rental turnover cleanouts, foreclosure and pre-sale cleanouts, and removal of furniture, appliances, and accumulated household or commercial contents. We load, haul, and properly dispose of all nonhazardous debris, including renovation debris generated from our own tear-out work. Post-Construction and Deep Cleaning: Detailed cleaning of newly built or renovated spaces to make them move-in or client-ready, including dust and debris removal, surface cleaning, window and fixture cleaning, floor cleaning, and final punch-list cleaning for contractors, builders, and property owners. We do not handle, transport, or dispose of hazardous materials, including asbestos, lead paint, chemicals, or biohazards.
