COUNTY EXECUTIVE BELLO ANNOUNCES IRONDEQUOIT BAY OUTLET BRIDGE WILL OPEN NOV.2

ROCHESTER, NY — Monroe County Executive Adam Bello announced today that the Irondequoit Bay Outlet Bridge (IBOB) will open to vehicular traffic on Monday, November 2, 2026. The structure will remain in place through March 31, 2027.

Located on the north end of Irondequoit Bay, the IBOB connects Culver Road in the town of Irondequoit to Lake Road in the town of Webster. The seasonal swing bridge is designed to span the outlet for vehicular traffic during the winter months. The Monroe County Department of Transportation (DOT) maintains and operates the IBOB. The bridge-use schedule is set in accordance with permits issued by the U.S. Coast Guard.
