It is my honor to present the first administrative report of the Office of Public Integrity (OPI). This report highlights significant accomplishments and activities of the OPI from October 12, 2016 through December 31, 2017 and outlines our goals and objectives going forward.

When the OPI was created through executive order in March 2016, the County of Monroe formally recognized a new voice for the values of accountability, efficiency, transparency, and integrity within County government. The Inspector General concept has a long-standing tradition of upholding these values, most notably since the Inspector General Act of 1978, which specifically prohibits agency management officials from supervising the Inspector General. This important organizational independence helps to limit the potential for conflicts of interest that exist when an audit or investigative function is placed under the authority of the official whose particular programs are being scrutinized. This also insulates Inspector Generals against reprisal and promotes independent and objective reporting.

Today, Inspector General Offices have proliferated through federal, state and local government across the nation; and Monroe County is one of the newest beneficiaries of this important tradition. Like the OPI/Inspectors Generals before us, the County of Monroe is committed to adhering to the highest standards in order to independently and objectively investigate suspicion of fraud, waste, or abuse of Monroe County resources.

This reporting cycle was a busy and interesting period. In addition to investigating complaints, providing Ethics training, and conducting audits, a considerable amount of time was spent procuring the basic necessities to run an office effectively. We acquired space and equipment, and hired several dedicated and experienced professionals.

While OPI has much to do to achieve full capacity, over the next several months, we are well positioned to expand our outreach, expand our investigations and begin to establish our office as a national leader.

I. OVERVIEW

FORMAN AND LEGISLATIVE AUTHORIZATION
The Monroe County Office of Public Integrity (OPI) is an initiative started by County Executive Cheryl Dinolfo to fulfill a promise of greater accountability in County Government. This office was established in March of 2016 and serves as an independent entity that performs internal audits of County departments and conducts investigations regarding suspected unethical or illegal conduct of County employees, contractors and anyone doing business with Monroe County.

MISSION
The mission of OPI is to promote and defend the integrity, efficiency and accountability of Monroe County and its operations. It is intended to build an office that is dedicated to assisting employees to do a better job, and provide guidance to employees to ensure that the decisions they make are lawful, ethical and further public interest.

INDEPENDENCE
To ensure independence from County operations, the Monroe County Charter states that "the Director of the Office of Public Integrity shall be appointed for a fixed term of five years, the first appointment shall serve through December 31, 2020." The Charter is also specific in the political activities that are prohibited beyond basic voting rights.

OPI is lead by the Director, who is supported by a team comprised of an Executive Secretary, an Auditor, and two part-time Investigators.

OPI maintains collaborative working relationships for investigations and prosecution with teams from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the New York State Attorney General’s Bureau of Investigation, the New York State Attorney General’s Office, the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office, and the Monroe County District Attorney. In addition, OPI engages with the community by providing ethics education and outreach to civic groups, neighborhood organizations, and other local municipalities.

OPI ANNUAL REPORT
OPI provides an annual report of its activities to the County Legislature and County Executive, and other reports that the Director deems necessary.

FRAMEWORK FOR AUDITS
OPI’s audits are based on the following 5 Control Objectives:

- Compliance with Laws, Regulations, and Contracts
- Accomplishment of Goals and Objectives
- Reliability and Integrity of Financial and Operational Information
- Effectiveness and Efficiency of Operations
- Safeguarding of Assets

Based on OPI’s 5 Control Objectives, audit plans are developed to assess whether:
- All Eligible Customers Are Being Served
- Revenues Are Maximized
- Receivables Are Collected
- Expenditures Are Proper and Authorized
- Assets Are Safeguarded
- Employees Are Trained and Competent
- Liabilities Are Minimized and Laws Are Complied With
- Financial and Operational Reports Are Timely, Relevant and Accurate

QUALITY STANDARDS
To ensure the highest quality in its audits and investigations, OPI incorporates the applicable concepts from the following standards as promulgated by their authoritative bodies:

- Principles and Standards for Offices of Inspector General
- Internal Audit Standards
- Government Auditing Standards

To meet its objectives, OPI performs the following activities:

- Ethics training to employees and contractors through presentations and on-line courses.
- Operational and financial audits of County operations, employees and contractors.
- Investigations regarding suspected unethical or illegal conduct of employees and contractors.

QUALITY STANDARDS
To ensure the highest quality in its audits and investigations, OPI incorporates the applicable concepts from the following standards as promulgated by their authoritative bodies:

HOTLINE AND WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION
A whistleblower is an individual that believes reports that his or her organization is engaged in or willfully permits unethical or unlawful activities.

Any suspicions of unethical or unlawful activities can be reported to The Office of Public Integrity using the following methods:

- Confidential Hotline: 585-753-3100
- In person:  Times Square Building, 45 Exchange Boulevard, Suite 888, Rochester New York 14614.
- Email: Whistleblower@MonroeCounty.gov
- Office Phone: 585-753-3100

Regardless of the method used to contact OPI, the whistleblower’s identity is kept confidential.
II. ACCOMPLISHMENTS

OPI’s accomplishments include activities that occur one-time and activities that are on-going, such as ethics training and certain audits. While the impact of an enhanced ethical environment cannot always be easily quantified, certain financial benefits of audits and investigations can be readily calculated and are included below.

FINANCIAL BENEFITS TO THE COUNTY

Cost Savings ($46,079)

During audits of radios issued to emergency medical service agencies in Monroe County, OPI identified 1 radio and 26 dual-tone control heads that were not recorded as assets on the County’s inventory system for radios. The value of these 27 items is $39,270. These items have since been added to the County’s inventory list.

During an audit of employee and vendor compliance with the County’s policy for Portable Electronic Devices, OPI identified 35 phones with insignificant usage. With eliminating just the 35 phones, at a monthly charge of $40 per month, the County will be able to save $16,800.

Recoupments and Additional Revenue ($220,000)

During this period, audits that included potential recoupments or opportunities for additional revenue to the County are still in process. Until litigation is complete, details of the audits and their respective recoupments cannot be disclosed. Current audits are expected to yield a minimum recoupment of approximately $220,000.

ETHICS TRAINING

OPI believes in setting a “tone at the top” and sharing this tone with employees and contractors through on-line ethics training and classroom-style presentations.

In April 2017, OPI finished the development of an on-line ethics training course, which was deployed to all County employees through the Department of Human Resources. This training was intended for approximately 3,300 full-time employees, 600 part-time employees, and 100 contractors.

In addition to the on-line training, OPI conducted 35 classroom-style training to 831 employees through New Employee Orientation, Supervisory Training, and department presentations.

AUDITS

Within the internal control environment of Monroe County, the Office of Public Integrity serves as a preventive and detective function. Accordingly, many of OPI’s activities are on-going rather than simply onetime occurrences. Examples of certain on-going auditing and monitoring activities include:

- Residency requirements for employees who are not eligible for waivers.
- Financial Disclosure forms for employees in management and professional positions.
- Compliance with County procurement policies, with emphasis on professional service contracts and publicly bid contracts.
- Inventory management of County assets, such as public safety equipment provided to Emergency Medical providers and Fire Districts.
- Interdepartmental agreements for functions such as the Public Safety Training Center, 911 Center, cell towers, and fuel purchases.

In addition to the ongoing monitoring, OPI completed 15 audits, and another four audits are active.

For 2017, OPI’s audit activity was heavily concentrated with EMS (emergency management system) agencies, that had been loaned radio equipment from Monroe Security & Safety Systems Locally. In total, 35 audits were completed.

- One (1) involved corrupt election process practices and was referred to the appropriate State agency for further investigation.
- One (1) involved a County code violation regarding oaths of office and was referred to the County’s Law Department.
- One (1) involved personal use of County assets by an employee and was referred to the County department for disciplinary action and also resulted in reimbursement to the County of $133.75.
- One (1) involved unauthorized use of a County room by a non-profit agency and was unfounded.
- One (1) involved a violation of employment practices and was unfounded.
- One (1) involved a theft of cash and was referred to the Sheriff’s Office for criminal investigation.
- One (1) involved violation of a City ordinance and was referred to the City of Rochester.
The inherent and unique responsibility to the Office of Public Integrity is its follow-up and response to any concerns that are reported through the County’s hotline. To maximize its effectiveness, OPI also takes a proactive approach in mitigating the various financial and operational risks to Monroe County. To accomplish this, OPI uses a comprehensive approach to risk assessment that includes OPI’s knowledge of County operations, prior audit results, and management’s immediate concerns. For purposes of this section, management is defined as any employee or elected official of Monroe County, who is responsible for establishing policy or providing services to the public.

RISK ASSESSMENT
Risk assessment is one of the five essential internal control components for any entity. For management, assessing risk can allow them to identify and implement internal controls that are most cost-efficient in minimizing those risks. For auditors, assessing risk allows for the development of an annual audit plan which is logical, reasonable, and maximizes the effectiveness of available resources.

In order to assess risk, the following steps are performed:

Determine Management’s Objectives
The County’s objective, per its vision statement, is to make Monroe County a community of choice. To meet this objective, management strives to provide governmental services in an efficient manner so as to minimize the tax burden on County residents.

Identify Risks Related To Management’s Objectives
Risk is defined as any event that could prevent management from meeting its objectives. Various risks exist that could prevent the County from meeting its objective of providing services in an effective and efficient manner. These risks are related to, but are not limited to, employees, vendors, customers, and the environment. These risks can potentially impact revenues, expenditures, assets, and services. While OPI can identify the general risks of each auditable unit, management is responsible for identifying and controlling all risks, especially those specific to their units.

Assess the Magnitude of the Risks
Each risk has various attributes that can be quantified. Using data from the Budget Office and the Controller’s Office, OPI has quantified the magnitude of each of the eight risk attributes that have been included in Monroe County’s risk assessment. After quantifying the risk attributes, it becomes possible to compare the risks of auditable units.

Assess the Likelihood of the Risks
In addition to magnitude, the likelihood of occurrence must be determined in order to have an overall sense of each risk and its relationship to other risks within the County. However, assessment of likelihood can be more subjective if historical data is not available. To date, an objective assessment of likelihood of each risk is pending.

Determine the Significance and Rank of Each Risk Within the Entity
The significance of risks varies between entities that utilize risk assessment. The significance and rank of each risk depends on an entity’s objectives. Within the County, OPI has ranked the eight risk attributes as follows: 1) dollar amount of fees for service, 2) control over off-book accounts, 3) dollar amount of equipment and inventory, 4) number of employees, 5) dollar amount of appropriations, 6) type of customers, 7) type of service, and 8) dollar amount of federal and state aid.

Calculate an Overall Risk Factor for Each Auditable Unit
Upon multiplying the significance of each risk attribute by the magnitude and likelihood of occurrence, a risk factor is created by which every auditable unit can be ranked for risk within the County. The risk factor scale is from 0.00 to 3.00.

Compare Risk Factors of the Auditable Units in Order to Identify the Areas of Highest Risk
Auditable units with risk factors that approach 3.00 should be included on the annual audit plan, unless the auditable unit was recently audited and contained no significant findings.

FUTURE ACTIVITIES
OPI will continue to 1) provide training on ethics to County employees and contractors, 2) perform audits of County operations and contractors, and 3) perform investigations of suspected misconduct, fraud, and unethical behavior.

Future audits will include, but not be limited to, the following areas, as highlighted through risk assessment: Procurement Process, Emergency Medical Services, Fire Districts, Public Safety Training Center, 911 Center, Cell Towers, Fuel Purchases, the Airport Revitalization Program, and Revenue-Producing Functions.

OPI plans to perform audits of at least 6 county departments in 2018.
