The inherent and unique responsibility of the Office of Public Integrity is to follow-up and respond to any concerns that are reported through the County’s hotline. However, to maximize its effectiveness, OPI also takes a proactive approach in mitigating the various financial and operational risks to Monroe County. To accomplish this, OPI uses a comprehensive approach to risk assessment that includes OPI’s knowledge of County operations, prior audit results, and management’s immediate concerns. For purposes of this section, management is defined as any employee or elected official of Monroe County, who is responsible for establishing policy or providing services to the public.

Risk Assessment

Risk assessment is one of the five essential internal control components for any entity. For management, assessing risk can allow them to identify and implement internal controls that are most cost-efficient in minimizing those risks. For auditors, assessing risk allows for the development of an annual audit plan which is logical, reasonable, and maximizes the effectiveness of available resources.

In order to assess risk, the following steps (italicized) are performed.

a) Determine management’s objectives.
The County’s objective, per its vision statement, is to make Monroe County a community of choice. To meet this objective, management strives to provide governmental services in an efficient manner so as to minimize the tax burden on County residents.

b) Identify risks related to management’s objectives.
Risk is defined as any event that could prevent management from meeting its objectives. Various risks exist that could prevent the County from meeting its objective of providing services in an effective and efficient manner. These risks are related to, but are not limited to, employees, vendors, customers, and the environment. These risks can potentially impact revenues, expenditures, assets, and services. While OPI can identify the general risks of each auditable unit, management is responsible for identifying and controlling all risks, especially those specific to their units.

c) Assess the magnitude of the risks.
Each risk has various attributes that can be quantified. Using data from the Budget Office and the Controller’s Office, OPI has quantified the magnitude of each of the eight risk attributes that have been included in Monroe County’s risk assessment. After quantifying the risk attributes, it becomes possible to compare the risks of auditable units.

d) Assess the likelihood of the risks.
In addition to magnitude, the likelihood of occurrence must be determined in order to have an overall sense of each risk and its relationship to other risks within the County. However, assessment of likelihood can be more subjective if historical data is not available. To date, an objective assessment of likelihood of each risk is pending.

e) Determine the significance and rank of each risk within the entity.
The significance of risks varies between entities that utilize risk assessment. The significance and rank of each risk depends on an entity’s objectives. Within the County, OPI has ranked the eight risk attributes as follows: 1) dollar amount of fees for service, 2) control over off-book accounts, 3) dollar amount of equipment and inventory, 4) number of employees, 5) dollar amount of appropriations, 6) type of customers, 7) type of service, and 8) dollar amount of federal and state aid.

Confidentiality
Any questions regarding OPI’s investigations are welcome, with the understanding that it is OPI's responsibility to maintain a proper balance between transparency regarding its activities and reports and confidentiality regarding its complainants, informants, and evidence. OPI has established procedures for safeguarding the identity of confidential sources and for protecting privileged and confidential information, and can disclose such items if such disclosure is required by law or necessary to further the purpose of an audit, investigation, inspection, evaluation, review, or other inquiry. A variety of federal, state, and local government legislation governs this area of activity.

Other Accomplishments
In August 2019, Investigator John Melville completed training and was certified as an Inspector General Investigator through the Association of Inspectors General (AIG). With Investigator Melville’s certification, all investigative and auditing staff, consisting of Director Moore, Eric Leinenbach and Investigator Peglow, have been certified by the AIG. Certification requires forty (40) hours of Continuing Professional Education over a two-year period, and each certified employee has maintained this level of training.

The AIG establishes and maintains the “Principles and Standards for Offices of Inspectors General.” Also known as the “Green Book”, the AIG’s Principles and Standards establish criteria for creating and administering inspector general offices consistent with best practices within the inspector general profession. Currently, approximately 4,500 people are certified as either investigators, auditors, or inspector generals by the AIG. This compares to 665,000 Certified Public Accountants per the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy on May 25, 2016.
OPI’s accomplishments include activities that occur one-time and activities that are on-going, such as ethics training and certain audits. While the impact of an enhanced ethical environment cannot always be easily quantified, certain financial benefits of audits and investigations can be readily calculated and are included below.

Financial Benefits to the County
Cost Savings ($14,216 in 2019, $128,331 for 2017-2019)

During an annual audit of employee and vendor compliance with the County’s policy for Portable Electronic Devices, OPI identified 32 phones and aircards to eliminate, for a cost savings of $14,216 annually, beginning in 2019.

Recoupments and Additional Revenue
($151,161 in 2019, $558,465 for 2017-2019)

During this period, audits that include potential recoupments or opportunities for additional revenue to the County are still in process. Until litigation is complete, details of the audits and their respective recoupments cannot be disclosed. One audit is expected to yield a minimum recoupment of $53,550. A second audit, which was of a local health care provider, resulted in a signed settlement agreement on September 30, 2019 for $505,115, which is an additional $151,161 from the 2018 calculated amount of $353,954. The repayment was made on October 1, 2019. After gathering evidence and performing calculations, OPI worked in conjunction with the New York State Attorney General’s Office to prosecute this case.

Ethics Training
OPI believes in setting a “tone at the top” and sharing this tone with employees and contractors through on-line ethics training and classroom-style presentations.

During 2019, OPI maintained the on-line ethics training course, which is deployed to all County employees through the Department of Human Resources. This training is intended for approximately 3,900 full-time employees, 600 part-time employees, and 100 contractors. This training covers various concerns, including confidentiality, and the Monroe County Law Department’s criteria regarding the acceptance of gifts, and uses examples of issues identified during actual investigations.

In addition to employee/contractor on-line training, OPI, in conjunction with the County’s Purchasing Unit, developed on-line ethics training for all vendors having professional service contracts and construction contracts with the County. This training notice will be incorporated into Requests for Proposals and Public Bids beginning in 2020 and required in order to fully execute a contract.

In addition to the on-line training, OPI provided 36 classroom-style trainings to 1,129 employees through New Employee Orientation, Supervisory Training, and direct presentations to departments, and 1 training to 35 criminal-justice students at the State University of New York at Brockport.

Audits
Within the internal control environment of Monroe County, the Office of Public Integrity serves as a preventive and detective function. Accordingly, many of OPI’s activities are recurring rather than simply one-time occurrences.
I. OVERVIEW

Formation and Legislative Authorization
The Monroe County Office of Public Integrity (OPI) is an initiative started by County Executive Cheryl Dinolfo to fulfill a promise of greater accountability in County Government. This office was established in March of 2016 and serves as a public integrity agency that performs internal audits of County departments and conducts investigations regarding suspected unethical or illegal conduct of County employees, contractors, and anyone involved with Monroe County.

Mission
The mission of OPI is to promote and defend the integrity, efficiency and accountability of Monroe County and its operations. It is intended to build an office that is dedicated to assisting employees to do a better job, and provide guidance to employees to ensure that the decisions they make are lawful, ethical and further the public interest.

Independence
To ensure independence from County operations, the Monroe County Charter states that “the Director of the Office of Public Integrity shall be appointed for a fixed term of five years, the first appointment shall serve through December 31, 2020.” The Charter is also specific in the political activities that are prohibited beyond basic voting rights.

OPI is located in the Times Square Building, away from all other County operations. This satellite setting offers anonymity for any County employee or resident who wishes to discuss their concerns or suspicions in private.

Scope and Subpoena Power
The Monroe County Charter states the scope and powers of OPI.

OPI’s scope includes the ability to examine all County operations independently and to have the full authority to report its findings to law enforcement, when necessary, and to provide recommendations to improve effectiveness, efficiency, and accountability. OPI’s scope also includes any concerns received from Monroe County residents regarding their government.

OPI’s power includes: 1) the authority to require any County employee, head of a department, or a member of a board or commission to furnish such data, information or statements as may be necessary, unless prohibited or limited by law, and 2) the authority to subpoena witnesses, administer oaths or affirmations, take testimony and compel the production of such books, records and documents, including electronic data from any private vendor, including Local Development Corporations (LDCs), doing business with the County or that receives funds from the County, relative to that private vendor or LDC’s involvement with the County.

Organizational Structure, Collaborations, and Reporting
OPI is lead by the Director, who is supported by a team comprised of an Executive Secretary, an Auditor, and two part-time Investigators.

OPI maintains collaborative working relationships for investigations and prosecution with teams from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the New York State Attorney General’s Office, the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office, and the Monroe County District Attorney. In addition, OPI engages with the community by providing ethics education and outreach to civic groups, neighborhood organizations, and other local municipalities.

OPI provides an annual report of its activities to the County Legislature and County Executive, and other reports that the Director deems necessary for departments to take corrective action and implement recommendations.

OPI’s audits are based on the following 5 Control Objectives:

- Compliance with laws, regulations, and contracts

- International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing issued by the Institute of Internal Auditors
- Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States

Note: Generally Accepted Auditing Standards issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants are applicable to audits of financial statements, and will be adhered to when applicable to OPI’s scope.

Hotline and Whistleblower Protection
A whistleblower is an individual that believes and reports that his or her organization is engaged in or willfully permits unethical or unlawful activities.

Any suspicions of unethical or unlawful activities can be reported to the Office of Public Integrity using the following methods:

Email: whistleblower@monroecounty.gov
Office Phone: (585) 753-3100

Regardless of the method used to contact OPI, the whistleblower’s identity is kept confidential.

Suspicions may include instances of fraud, waste, and abuse, and may include the following:
