LAND USE DECISION-MAKING TRAINING PROGRAM

ANNOUNCES LIVE AND VIRTUAL SESSIONS FOR FALL 2022!

The Monroe County Department of Planning & Development will host one in-person training on November 3rd and has partnered with the Genesee Finger Lakes Regional Planning Council (G/FLRPC) and the Nine-Counties of the Genesee Finger Lakes Region to host five virtual trainings over three days throughout November. See second page for virtual training schedule.

All trainings will be two hours each and four hours of training will satisfy New York State's four-hour annual training requirement for members of Municipal Planning Boards and Zoning Boards of Appeals. Code Enforcement Officers and Building Officials are also eligible for training credits for several trainings. All attendees will receive a certificate of participation at the completion of all sessions. For questions on the five virtual trainings contact: Rob Richardson at rjrichardson@gflrpc.org.

Introduction to New York State Environmental Quality Review (SEQR)

Thursday, November 3 — 5:00 to 7:15 P.M.

Cost: $35.00

This in-person session will focus on the fundamentals of SEQR, an overview of process, roles and responsibilities of boards and applicants, substantive and procedural information, and salient legal precedents. The session will also integrate case examples to provide context. Participants will receive two hours of training credit. Check-in begins at 4:30 P.M. Dinner will be served at 6:00 P.M. Free parking is available in lot M. The closest entrance to the Empire Room is on the far right of the building when looking at the Flynn building from the parking lot or road.

Faculty: Betsy Brugg, Esq. and Jerry A. Goldman, Esq. of Woods Oviatt Gilman LLP.

Location: Empire Room (second floor) of Flynn Campus Center (Building 3) of Monroe Community College, Brighton Campus.

Online registration is required
