MCSO AND LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES INVESTIAGE MULTIPLE BOMB THREATS Public Encouraged to Remain Vigilant and Call 911 to Report Suspicious Activity

Rochester, NY (December 13, 2018) - Monroe County has received 13 bomb threats on today's date, December 13, 2018, between 1:12 p.m. – 4:44 p.m., that are similar in nature to the nationwide trend that began in August 2018. The threats are sent via anonymous email and all are worded in a similar fashion. While each occurrence is being investigated individually, there is nothing to indicate that any of these threats is credible. MCSO continues to share information with the FBI and the Monroe Crime Analysis Center. Although the threats do not appear to be credible, MCSO always encourages the public to remain vigilant and call 911 immediately to report any suspicious communications and/or activity. Local law enforcement will continue to investigate.

Please see list below for time, location, and investigating agency. Note: All threats were made on today's date, December 13, 2018. Specific locations will not be named.
