Rochester, NY (December 18, 2020) – The Monroe County Sheriff's Office prides itself on growing and developing its members for success, shaping them for greater leadership positions. It is both an honor and bittersweet to witness MCSO Commander Janson McNair's appointment to the Director of Monroe County's Office of Public Integrity.

Additionally, former MCSO Director of Inmate Drug and Alcohol Treatment Programs, Dr. Tisha Smith, was recently appointed as Monroe County's first Addiction Services Director.

"I am proud of both of these individuals for their exceptional service with the Monroe County Sheriff's Office," said Monroe County Sheriff Todd K. Baxter. "Commander McNair and Dr. Smith are two fine examples of members who lead from the front and work to make any organization better. We strive to develop leaders, and these recent appointments are proof of our success."

MCSO wishes both Commander McNair and Dr. Smith much success in their new leadership positions.
