MCSO Arrests Home Health Aide for Stealing from Elderly Client

Pittsford, NY (June 28, 2023) In late December 2022, deputies responded to a residence in the Town of Pittsford for the allegation of a home health aide scamming a 90-year-old victim. A concerned Citizens Bank employee alerted deputies to suspicious activity on the victim's account. The MCSO Economic Crimes Unit handled the investigation. The suspect, as a caregiver to the victim, did intentionally and wrongfully steal money from the victim's checking account. On June 26, 2023, Monroe County Sheriff's deputies arrested Alpha D. Harris, 60, of Greece. She is accused of taking more than $60,000 from the victim over the course of several months before MCSO was notified.

Alpha D. Harris is charged with:
* Grand Larceny in the Second Degree (Class C-Felony)

Harris was released on an appearance ticket.

MCSO commends the Citizens Bank employee for recognizing the suspicious activity and notifying the authorities.

If you or someone you know has been victimized by Alpha Harris, call 911 to report the incident.
