MCSO Deputies Arrest Two People for Burglary in Pittsford.

Pittsford, NY (May 17, 2023) On May 16, 2023, just after 11:00 in the morning, Monroe County Sheriff's deputies responded to Main Street in the Town of Pittsford for a burglary in progress. Witnesses said a man was last seen running through backyards toward the power lines. After setting up a perimeter and starting a K9 track, deputies observed the suspect. A short foot chase ensued and the man was taken into custody. He is identified as Ethan Davenport, 22, of Irondequoit.

During the investigation, deputies received another report for a burglary in the same area. A review of security footage revealed the male suspect had a female partner. A description was broadcast and deputies quickly located the female suspect. She is identified as Deziree Teerlinck, 21, of Hamlin.

Deputies charged Mr. Davenport with:
- Burglary in the Third Degree (Class D–Felony)
- Grand Larceny in the Fourth Degree Class E-Felony)
- Petit Larceny (Class A-Misdemeanor)

Deputies charged Ms. Teerlinck with:
- Burglary in the Third Degree (Class D-Felony)
- Petit Larceny (Class A-Misdemeanor)

Both suspects were issued appearance tickets and released.

Excellent teamwork by deputies to coordinate a secure perimeter and apprehend the suspects swiftly.
