MONROE COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES CHARGE HOTEL MANAGER WITH GRAND LARCENY AND FALSIFYING BUSINESS RECORDS

Suspect Stole Tens of Thousands over the Course of Two Years

Penfield, NY (July 31, 2019) – On July 18, 2019, Monroe County Sheriff's Deputy Bret Zawadzki responded to the Hampton Inn, located at 950 Panorama Trail, Penfield, for a larceny report. The hotel was alerted by its bank to several transactions for unusually high dollar amounts being deposited into another account. The hotel's upper management received information that hotel manager Bryan McGillvray, 30, Rochester, was responsible for the illegal transactions, and through an audit discovered McGillvray had been altering business records and stealing money from the company since early 2017. In total, McGillvray stole $42,000 over the past two (2) years while employed at the Penfield Hampton Inn and the Hampton Inn, located at 4873 Lake Rd. S., Sweden.
