MONROE COUNTY SHERIFF'S INVESTIGATORS ARREST RUSH-HENRIETTA HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT FOR MAKING A TERRORISTIC THREAT AGAINST A SCHOOL

Shamire Broylid in MCSO Custody and Receiving Intervention and Services

Henrietta, N.Y. (June 12, 2019) – On today's date, June 12, 2019 at 12:30 p.m., upon further investigation into a social media post regarding a Rush-Henrietta Central School District student, the Monroe County Sheriff's Office arrested and charged Shamire Broylid, 19, Henrietta, with Making a Terroristic Threat (Class-D Felony). Mr. Broylid made a threat on social media alleging he had thoughts about shooting up a school. Thanks to several citizens alerting authorities to the threat, the Monroe County Sheriff's Office responded to Mr. Broylid's home and conducted a thorough investigation that included conversations with Broylid's family. The investigation also revealed Mr. Broylid did not have access to weapons.

Mr. Broylid was not present at Rush-Henrietta High School today, as he was transported to Strong Memorial Hospital last evening, June 11, 2019, for evaluation. At no time were students, faculty or staff believed to be in any danger. As an extra precaution, the Monroe County Sheriff's Office provided a presence at both Rush-Henrietta High School and the Webster Learning Center.

The Monroe County Sheriff's Office, in collaboration with the Rush-Henrietta Central School District, is providing the proper intervention to ensure Mr. Broylid receives the wrap around services that he requires and needs. Mr. Broylid's family, the school district, and the criminal justice system are all involved in Mr. Broylid's case to manage any potential threat.

Mr. Broylid was arraigned at Henrietta Town Court on today's date at 3:30 p.m. and remanded to the Monroe County Jail on $2,500 cash bail/$25,000 bond.

Broyld, Shamire

19 years old

Henrietta

Charged with:

- Making a Terroristic Threat
(Class D – Felony)

The Monroe County Sheriff's Office would like to thank all of the friends, students, and community members who did the right thing in alerting authorities after viewing Mr. Broyld's threat on social media. Remember, if you see something, say something. The investigation is ongoing.
