MONROE COUNTY JAIL

PREA
ANNUAL REPORT
2016

PREA

PREA was established in 2003 to address the problems of sexual abuse and sexual harassment of persons in the custody of U.S. correctional agencies. Major provisions of PREA include the development of standards for the detection, prevention, reduction and punishment of prison/jail rapes. The Monroe County Sheriff's Office continues to enforce zero tolerance on all issues pertaining to sexual abuse and sexual harassment involving inmates and is working continuously to implement new policies, training requirements for staff and inmates, and developing standards for detection, prevention, reduction and punishment of rape.
