YAR
YOUTH AS RESOURCES
MONROE COUNTY'S YOUTH PHILANTHROPY & SERVICE LEARNING PROGRAM

Youth As Resources, a program of the Rochester-Monroe County Youth Bureau, empowers and engages youth as partners with adults in creating positive community change and development. Youth and adult members govern the YAR board and provide grants of up to $1000 to local youth-led community service and service-learning projects that address a clear community need. Funding for YAR grants is made possible by the generous support of the Rochester Area Community Foundation.

Examples of youth-led projects funded by YAR:

- Refurbishing a daycare center
- Painting a mural to promote healthy lifestyles
- Planting food gardens and hosting community cooking classes
- Making hygiene kits to give to homeless and runaway teenagers
- Creating a series of music video PSAs to advocate for healthy lifestyle choices
- And many, many more!

THE DETAILS:

- YAR will provide $1,000 to a community service or service-learning project that is youth-led, planned, implemented, and addresses a clear community need.

- To learn more about how to fill out this application, contact the Program Office at (585) 753-6953. We will send you written information or schedule a time to present a workshop to your organization about the application process.

SERVICE-LEARNING

"Service-learning is a teaching and learning strategy that integrates meaningful community service with instruction and reflection to enrich the learning experience, teach civic responsibility, and strengthen communities."
- Learn and Serve America

THE DETAILS:

- YAR encourages applicants to incorporate service-learning into your proposed projects. Answering all of the questions in this application completely will help you plan a meaningful service-learning project.

- The YAR board will give preference to proposals utilizing and implementing concepts of service-learning.

- Extra points will be awarded to your application if your project utilizes the principles and meets the objectives of service-learning.

- To learn more, contact the program office at (585) 753-6953. We will send you written materials or schedule a time to present a workshop to your organization about service-learning.

Please follow the outline below exactly to answer the application questions on a separate piece of paper, typed or clearly written.

I. Your Project Idea
1) What is the title of your project? How did you decide upon this title?
2) Give us a brief summary of what you want to do.
3) What are the goals and outcomes you hope to achieve with this project?
4) Where will your project take place? When do you plan to begin and end your project?
5) What type of community support will you get for this project? (e.g. use of space or a facility, contributions, volunteers, etc.) How will you get this support?
6) What is the estimated number of people that will be engaged or will benefit from this project?
7) Will you need assistance or special permission to help complete this project? If so, what kind?

II. Youth Leadership
1) Why is youth leadership important for this project? Why are you personally committed to this project?
2) How will you ensure that youth stay involved and truly lead this project in partnership with adults?

III. Service-Learning (NOTE: even if your group is not interested in creating a full-fledged service learning project, by answering the questions below, you will be able to develop a meaningful project that will effectively serve the community)

"The Five R's of Service-Learning"
(Created by Dr. Marie Watkins, Director of the Center for Service-Learning at Nazareth College)

A. Responsible and relevant service:
1) What is the community issue, topic or concern your project will address?
2) How did your group determine that this topic is important and needs attention?
3) What types of service will you provide during the project? (e.g. facilitating workshops, collecting donations, running a food pantry, cleaning up a neighborhood)
4) Will the community groups you are working with engage in any type of service? If so, what will they be doing?

B. Reciprocity and relationships:
1) Which specific community, neighborhood, or group(s) will your project engage?
2) How will your group connect with the identified group above to share information and resources throughout the project?
3) How will you connect and interact with the larger community beyond the ones identified in Question B1? (Are you going to invite other community leaders? Will you have a presentation after your project is completed to share the information you learned?)

C. Rigorous active learning:
1) What do you hope to learn through planning and carrying out the project?
2) What do you hope the community members or participants will learn?

D. Reflection, ongoing:
1) What types of reflection activities will you include in your project planning to ensure you are on track in reaching your goal(s)?
2) What type of reflection activities will you work into your actual event / project to help participants think about the meaning of the project?

E. Recognition and celebration:
1) How will you recognize and celebrate the hard work and effort that your group puts into the project? (e.g. pizza party, awards, fun day, etc.)
2) How will you acknowledge and recognize community participation and contributions to your project?

IV. Project Budget
1) How much will your entire project cost? (not just the amount you are asking from YAR)
2) Will there be any in-kind donations?
3) Who will oversee the use of these funds?

Budget:

Directions:
- In column 1: Write down the items / services that you will be purchasing
- In column 2: Write down how much the item is going to cost - be as specific as possible
- In column 3: Write down the amount for each item that will be paid out of YAR Grant Funds in this column
- In column 4: Write down the supplier / provider and the value of any in-kind donations, which are any means of support other than money, usually goods or services provided to the group
- In TOTALS Row: Column 2= total of all expenses, Column 3 = total of all YAR Contributions, Column 4 = total of all In-Kind Contributions
- Row one demonstrates an example of how to complete the budget form
- Please make more copies of the budget form if needed

THIS BUDGET FORM MUST BE COMPLETED AS ACCURATELY AS POSSIBLE
