BROOKS ANNOUNCES RES EXHIBIT SERVICES IS BUSINESS OF THE MONTH

Monroe County Executive Maggie Brooks today announced that RES Exhibit Services, LLC (RES) has been named Monroe County's "Business of the Month" and is featured on Monroe County's website, monroecounty.gov. RES is a leader in the tradeshow industry, specializing in creating effective environments and new media experiences in some of the world's largest markets.

"RES is an incredible company that represents the new wave of manufacturers who incorporate cutting-edge technology into every stage of the process from design to the showroom floor," said Monroe County Executive Brooks. "I am proud that RES has made Monroe County their home and I thank them for their continued investment in our local economy and creating highly skilled jobs."

RES was founded in 1997 and is a family owned and operated business with over 40 years of experience in the industry. RES prides itself on having the strongest core of human resources available that provide leading edge experiences from the traditional trade show exhibit level all the way to innovative and inspiring new media experiences with some of the largest companies on a global scale.

RES serves clients in a wide-variety of industries such as: aviation, healthcare, sport optics, fashion apparel, housewares, machinery, and the military and defense industries. Their client base includes: Northrop Grumman, General Dynamics, World Fuel Services, Textron Systems, Luxottica, Harris Corporation, and Bausch & Lomb.

"We are proud to be headquartered in Monroe County where we plan to continue our growth and involvement in the community. The resourceful and diverse talent available to us has been a key stimulator in our continued success, said James Leonardo, RES CEO. "Through strategic initiatives with partners such as the Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT), our company continues to leave great impressions and quality of work second to none...globally. Monroe County makes sense for us."

RES is headquartered in the City of Rochester and occupies a 70,000 square foot facility at 435 Smith Street. In addition, RES occupies a 140,000 square foot storage facility in Webster and also has a presence in Las Vegas, Nevada. RES currently has 84 employees and is projecting a 20% growth in 2011 that would result in the addition of 17 new jobs.
